SALT LAKE AND EUREKA SOCCER TEAMS MEET IN UP PLAY TODAY

Today at 4:30 p. m. on the Fort Douglas grounds, Salt Lake and Eureko meet in the first game of the Daynes cup series for 1910. Word from Eureka last night said that the Miners would be accompanied with close to 100 rooters and that a victory over Sait Lake was expected.

For the first time since the introduction of soccer in Utah the game today will draw other than the old guard of soccer enthusiasts who followed the game in the "old country." The work of the Soccers Boosters association and the exhibitin games played on various fields for six weeks past have done a lot to broaden the field of soccer followers and a hig crowd is expected tolowers and a big crowd is expected to-

As soccer is hoped to be introduced as a regular sport in the Utah schols from the grades to the colleges, the Daynes cup race this season, as show-ing the best game to be had now in Ing the best game to be had now in Utah, will be watched with interest. On both teams are found old players of great ability and a fast contest is looked for. From the post a big delegation is assured, as the soldiers have entered a team in the cup race and next week will play the winner of today's game.

The announcement by Fred Bromley yesterday that he would play with his old Eureka teammates, was received

One thing that was noticeable was that each boy fought for the head, ne-glecting any attack to the body. I do not think there were more than 15 blows struck to the body in the whole

Erlenborn showed the better generalship, rushing to a clinch when hurt, protecting himself, where Sinclair stood up and fought all the time, where clinch would have saved him a lot of Erlenborn's work in the ring is fa

With more experience in the ring, I believe Sinclair will climb to the top of the featherweight division and will be known as one of the best boys of his weight the west has produced.

FISHING JEFF'S ONLY WORK---

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 29.—Jim J effries' camp here was unusually quiet today. Aside from a boxing bout betw een Billy Papke and big Bob Armstrong visitors saw nothing worth while. Early in the morning Jeff started up stream with Jack Wooley on a fishing trip, supposed to cover only the forenoon, but which lasted all day.

The condition of his back was re- | spectators from the gym while he is ported to be considerably better, but to this affliction is attributed his failure to appear in the gymnasium. While Jeffries is missing many an opportunity to box—a form of exercise in which he has indulged but little—his ailment also is keeping him away from the heavy work which has so worried his trainers, lest he overdo. He covered probably ten miles while fishing up and down the river and so managed to get some good out of the day.

Upon returning to camp Jeffries declared that he was through with fishing for the time being and that tomorrow would see him back to the usual Jeffries is missing many an opportunity

The reported plan is for Jeffries to take himself to the gym with only one sparring partner and one other com-panion, probably Farmer Burns, who will hold a stop-watch of rounds and keep tab on the work. Care will be taken that no prying eyes get a peep at the proceedings, and thus screened from an inquisitive public, Jeffries and his opponent will hammer each other
